

Privacy Policy

1. We collect personal data only to the extent necessary for the technical and commercial operation of our activities. Users will be informed of any such data collection and the specific purpose for which the data is being collected at or before the moment of collection.
2. The personal data we collect will be used fairly and lawfully, strictly for the specified purposes outlined at the time of collection. We will not use the data for any other purposes without obtaining your consent.
3. Personal data is collected directly from users through forms they complete on our website, ensuring transparency and consent at the point of data collection.
4. Users have the right to access their personal data. If you wish to review, correct, or update your personal information, please contact us using the information provided at the end of this policy.
5. We implement both technical and organizational measures to ensure the security of your personal data. Your information is protected against unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction.
6. We will not pass on your personal data to third parties without your explicit consent, except as required by law or to fulfill a service you have requested.
7. We will only store your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected, after which it will be securely deleted or anonymized.
8. We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. Any changes will be posted on this page, and we encourage you to review this policy regularly for any updates.
